

Instructions for Completing the Certificate of Correction (Form CORR-CORP)

To correct a provision of an agreement, certificate or instrument filed by a domestic or foreign corporation, the corporation must file a Certificate of Correction that meets the requirements of California Corporations Code sections 109, 173, and 193 as applicable (stock corporations); or 5007, 5062, and 5076 as applicable (nonprofit corporations); or 12213, 12241, and 12251 as applicable (cooperative corporations). Before submitting the completed form, you should consult with a private attorney for advice about your specific business needs.

Form CORR-CORP can be used to correct an agreement, certificate or other instrument filed by a domestic stock or nonprofit corporation, foreign stock or non-profit corporation, social purpose corporation, benefit corporation, fish marketing corporation, cooperative and agricultural cooperative, or foreign business corporation surviving a merger with a California nonprofit corporation.

Note: Form CORR-CORP has been created for ease in filing, however, any format may be used that meets statutory requirements.

Note: This form may not indicate a delayed (future) effective date. (California Corporations Code sections 109, 5007, and 12213.)

Fees:

- Filing Fee: The fee for filing the Certificate of Correction (Form CORR-CORP) is $30.00.
- Faster Service Fee: Counter Drop Off - A separate, non-refundable $15.00 handling fee is required if you submit the document in person (drop off) at our Sacramento office.
